Social science is a category of academic disciplines, concerned with society and the relationships among individuals within a society. Social science as a whole has many branches. These social sciences include, but are not limited to: anthropology, archaeology, communication studies, economics, history, musicology, human geography, jurisprudence, linguistics, political science, psychology ...Property rights are theoretical socially-enforced constructs in economics for determining how a resource or economic good is used and owned.

Resources can be owned by (and hence be the property of) individuals, associations or governments. Property rights can be viewed as an attribute of an economic good. This attribute has four broad components and is often referred to as a bundle of rights: Marianne Bertrand, University of Chicago, Booth School of Business, Robin Burgess, London School of Economics, Arunish Chawla, Indian Administrative Service, and Guo Xu, University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business Posted on May 6, 2019 Academy of Social Sciences ASS The United Kingdom Association of Learned Societies in the Social Sciences formed in 1982 gave rise to the Academy of Learned Societies for the Social Sciences incorporated 24.9.1999, which became the Academy of Social Sciences on 5.7.2007.
