R. Hillenbrand, 'The Use of Light in Islamic Architecture', in God is the Light of the Heavens and the Earth: Light in Islamic Art and Architecture, eds J Bloom and S. Blair (Yale, 2015), 86-121

The book is concerned with the need for a renewed understanding of the site in the twenty-first century and the establishment of a critical position regarding the continued tendency to view the site as a fragment severed from its wider context.

The John Ruskin (8 February 1819 – 20 January 1900) was the leading English art critic of the Victorian era, as well as an art patron, draughtsman, watercolourist, a prominent social thinker and philanthropist. He wrote on subjects as varied as geology, architecture, myth, ornithology, literature, education, botany and political economy.. His writing styles and literary forms were equally varied.
